Took home an armload of library books about acting for the camera and this was the standout I wanted to read in full. Whatever one's experience and training, periodic review can be helpful. Benedetto is very good at providing helpful techniques appropriate for both novice and professional actors. I have my 10,000 hours of experience on stage but only a smattering of film experience so this has been a perfect resource.

Great for upcoming actors. Provides a lot of information that helps. I was required to get this for class and I defin
